DAY BY DAY HIGHLIGHTS

HOOD RIVER TO PORTLAND

Day 4: Start the day with a bird's eye view of the magnificent Gorge at the Vista House, and travel the Historic Columbia River Highway, which celebrated its 100th anniversary in 2016. Enjoy lunch at Multnomah Falls Lodge before checking out the shops and galleries in downtown Troutdale (or hit the larger shops at Columbia Gorge Premium Outlets). Make your way into the City of Roses for a scenic dinner cruise on the Portland Spirit, the perfect way to start your two-night stay in Portland.

PORTLAND

Day 5: Brunch is a Portland thing! Enjoy brunch like mom used to make and head to Mother's Bistro & Bar. Afterwards, enjoy a guided city tour with a step-on guide from Slow Poke Tours where you'll learn about the history of Portland, including stops at places like Portlandia and the International Rose Test Gardens. If you happen to be visiting in June, plan to join the Rose Festival celebration with weatherproof seats for the Grand Floral Parade (2nd Saturday after Memorial Day). End your city tour at one of Portland's popular Food Cart Pods, like Cartopia or Hawthorne Asylum on Southeast Hawthorne Street. After lunch spend the afternoon on the #1 craft brewery tour experience in Portland: BREWVANA Portland Brewery Tours. BREWVANA offers a variety of different tours in several local neighborhoods, each with something unique and special.

PORTLAND TO ASTORIA / SEASIDE

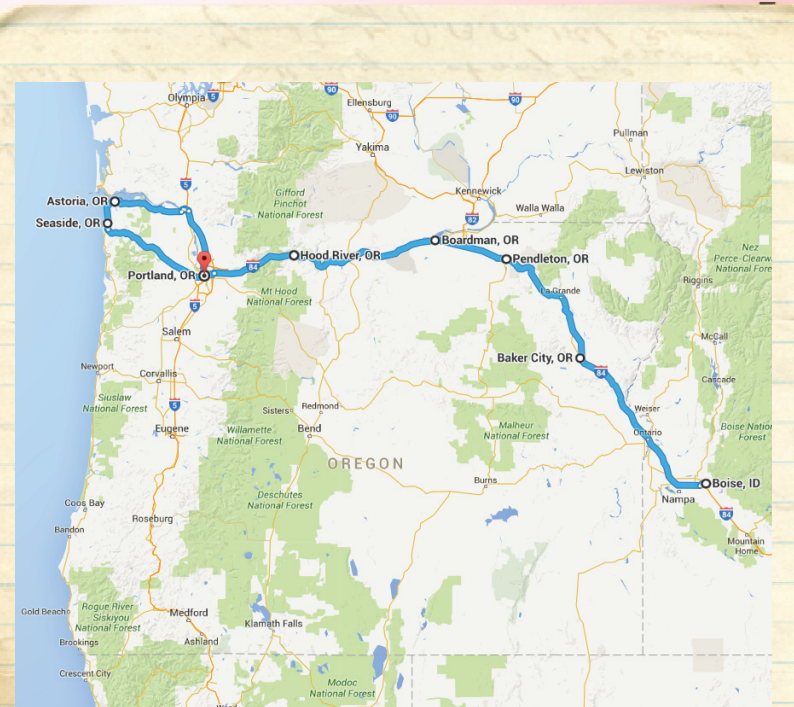

Day 7: Next stop, the famed Oregon Coast! Travel to downtown Seaside where there is a plethora of walkable shops and restaurants along the Pacific Ocean. Take a brewers tour at a Seaside Brewery before heading to 200 year old Astoria. There you'll hop on "Old 300" to see the city from a 1913 trolley before soaking in the history at the Columbia River Maritime Museum or Fort Stevens Historic Area. Have dinner at Buoy Beer Co., where you can check out what's come in fresh off the boat and watch the sea lions outside the windows or through the viewing floor.
